IV. Lack of unity of invention

1. In response to the invitation to restrict or pay additional fees the applicant has:

- ☐ restricted the claims.
☐ paid additional fees.
☐ paid additional fees under protest.
☐ neither restricted nor paid additional fees.

2. ☒ This Authority found that the requirement of unity of invention is not complied with and chose, according to Rule 68.1, not to invite the applicant to restrict or pay additional fees.

3. This Authority considers that the requirement of unity of invention in accordance with Rules 13.1, 13.2 and 13.3 is

- ☐ complied with.
☒ not complied with for the following reasons:

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In order for all inventions to be examined, the appropriate additional examination fees must be paid.

Group I, claims 1-4, 19 and 20, drawn to a method for detecting a taggant.

Group II, claims 5-8, 11-18, 21-33, drawn to a method for coating a material.

Group III, claims 9 and 10, drawn to a taggant solution.

The inventions listed as Groups I, II and III do not relate to a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Each group contains at least one taggant which radiates at least one X-ray as the special technical feature. The claims lack unity because the special technical feature is not Applicants' contribution over the prior art. The special technical feature is known in the art as seen by the cited references.

4. Consequently, the following parts of the international application were the subject of international preliminary examination in establishing this report:

- ☒ all parts.
☐ the parts relating to claims Nos. 2.

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT

International application No.

PCT/US00/27624

V. Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	NONE	YES
	Claims	1-33	NO
Inventive Step (IS)	Claims	NONE	YES
	Claims	1-33	NO
Industrial Applicability (IA)	Claims	1-33	YES
	Claims	NONE	NO

2. citations and explanations (Rule 70.7)

Claims 1-33 lack novelty under PCT Article 33(2) as being anticipated by White (4,476,882).

White teaches a scheme for encoding articles. The scheme involves marking the article with first and second materials which have the property of emitting X-rays when subjected to a source of electromagnetic radiation at an appropriate wavelength. The encoding elements include one or more rare earth elements and/or elements having atomic numbers between 16 and 92. The articles which can be encoded include paintings, tapestries, currency, etc.

Therefore, claims 1-33 lack novelty over White.

Claims 1-33 have industrial applicability as tagging agents and a method for tagging articles.

(54) Title: METHODS FOR IDENTIFICATION AND VERIFICATION

(57) Abstract: An apparatus and method in which one or more taggants are detected by X-ray fluorescence analysis to identify or verify the article or its point of manufacture. The taggants are manufactured as part of the article or placed into a coating, label, or otherwise embedded within the article for later verification of the presence or absence of the taggant. The detection apparatus (25) has an instrument housing (15) which contains various components. Gamma rays (30) from a source (20) are optionally focused by aperture (10) to impinge on a sample (11), which contains at least one taggant.

INTERNATIONAL SEARCH REPORT

International application No.
PCT/US00/27624

Box I Observations where certain claims were found unsearchable (Continuation of item 1 of first sheet)

This international report has not been established in respect of certain claims under Article 17(2)(a) for the following reasons:

1. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:

2. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they relate to parts of the international application that do not comply with the prescribed requirements to such an extent that no meaningful international search can be carried out, specifically:

3. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they are dependent claims and are not drafted in accordance with the second and third sentences of Rule 6.4(a).

Box II Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of item 2 of first sheet)

This International Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows:

Please See Extra Sheet.

1. ☒ As all required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers all searchable claims.
2. ☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, this Authority did not invite payment of any additional fee.
3. ☐ As only some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this international search report covers only those claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:

4. ☐ No required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this international search report is restricted to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.:

Remark on Protest

- ☐ The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest.
☐ No protest accompanied the payment of additional search fees.

BOX II. OBSERVATIONS WHERE UNITY OF INVENTION WAS LACKING

This ISA found multiple inventions as follows:

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In order for all inventions to be searched, the appropriate additional search fees must be paid.

Group I, claim(s) 1-4, 19, 20, drawn to a method of detecting at least one taggant and analyzing an article.

Group II, claim(s) 5-8, 11-18, 21-33, drawn to a method for coating an article.

Group III, claim(s) 9, 10, drawn to a taggant solution.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Each group contains at least one taggant which radiates at least one X-ray as the special technical feature. The claims lack unity because the special technical feature is not Applicant's contribution over the prior art. The special technical feature (at least one taggant which radiates at least one X-ray) is known in the art. See references cited in Search Report.
